

JURISTENKANTOOR — CABINET DE JURISTES — LAW FIRM

CLIENT AGREEMENT

DATE: ____ / ____ / 20 ____

*
* *
*

BETWEEN:

DECKER LAW, a firm of legal advisers (juristenkantoor) incorporated as a private limited liability company (besloten vennootschap, BV), having its registered office at Itegembaan 101, 2590 BERLAAR, enterprise number 0802.317.385 (Crossroads Bank for Enterprises), represented by H.G.T. DECKER, director and managing partner,

Hereinafter referred to as "the Firm"

AND:

Surname and forename(s) / Name and legal form of the legal entity
Date and place of birth / Incorporation of the company
VAT number and country
Address (domicile / registered office)
Telephone number (with country code)
Email address

Acting in his/her/their own name and also on behalf of all natural persons and legal entities (e.g. trusts, foundations, companies, joint ventures, insurance contracts) whom or which he/she/they guarantee or represent, or in relation to which he/she/they are founder, shareholder, director, manager or ultimate beneficial owner (UBO), directly or indirectly, in whole or in part.

Hereinafter referred to as "the Client"

JURISTENKANTOOR — CABINET DE JURISTES — LAW FIRM

Clause 1

The Client hereby instructs the Firm to provide the Client with legal assistance and advice and to safeguard the Client's interests in all files, matters and engagements which the Client has entrusted to the Firm to date or will entrust to it in the future, and to represent the Client in so far as the law permits. This Client Agreement (the "Agreement") shall govern all present and future professional relations between the parties, save as otherwise agreed in writing.

In the case of engagements on behalf of a legal entity, the undersigned natural person shall be personally bound to the Firm, jointly and severally and indivisibly, for the payment of all fees, expenses and other sums which the legal entity owes or will owe under this Agreement. This obligation constitutes joint and several liability by way of security (hoofdelijkheid tot zekerheid) within the meaning of Article 9.1.2, 5°, of the Belgian Civil Code. The undersigned expressly declares that his or her attention has been drawn to the scope of this obligation. This paragraph shall not apply where the undersigned natural person acts for purposes outside his or her trade, business, craft or profession.

Clause 2

The Firm undertakes, as an obligation of means (middelenverbintenis), to handle the files, engagements and matters entrusted to it to the best of its ability and in accordance with the applicable legislation. The Client shall comply with the same legislation and rules.

The Firm shall keep the Client regularly informed of the progress of the files, by whichever means of communication the Firm considers most useful and efficient at the time.

The Client shall, on first request and without delay, provide the Firm with all particulars, papers, documents and information which the Firm requires for the performance of its engagement. The Client shall also, unprompted and to the best of the Client's ability, without omission or concealment, provide the Firm with all useful particulars and information concerning the matter, even where the Firm has not specifically requested them or was unaware of their existence.

The Firm may suspend, discontinue or terminate its work if it is established that the Client is failing to fulfil the Client's obligations under this clause. The Firm shall notify the Client thereof in writing and allow the Client a reasonable period within which to fulfil those obligations, unless the nature of the failure or the urgency of the file requires immediate suspension. In the event of termination, the Firm shall safeguard the Client's interests in the manner set out in clause 7. Such suspension, discontinuance or termination shall not in itself give rise to any liability on the part of the Firm, without prejudice to clause 9.

JURISTENKANTOOR — CABINET DE JURISTES — LAW FIRM

Clause 3

For the performance of its engagements, the Firm may, at its discretion, call upon its in-house staff. It may also call upon third parties outside the Firm (lawyers (advocaten), bailiffs, accountants or other advisers or experts), provided that the Client consents thereto in advance. The Firm shall discuss this with the Client in advance and shall record the Client's consent in writing (an email being sufficient). Save as otherwise agreed in writing, such third parties shall invoice the Client directly for their fees and expenses, which shall fall outside the scope of this Agreement.

Clause 4

In respect of matters and claims capable of monetary valuation, the fees may be calculated on a sliding scale of decreasing percentages of the principal sum forming the subject of the matter, at the rates set out below, which are applied band by band to that part of the sum falling within the band concerned, even where that calculation produces a higher amount than a calculation based on the applicable chargeable hourly rate. This method of calculation shall apply only where it has been agreed in writing in advance, either in the engagement letter or in a separate document. Failing such agreement, the fees shall be calculated on the basis of the chargeable hourly rate. Where both methods of calculation have been provided for, the Firm shall inform the Client, before the services commence, which of them it will apply.

Office expenses are charged at a flat rate of 10% of the fees.

By way of indication only, and as applicable at the time of signature of this Agreement, the Firm's rates for fees and expenses are as follows: the fees per chargeable hour vary according to the experience of the fee earner, his or her field of practice and specialisms, the urgency of the file, the complexity of the matter, etc.

All amounts are expressed in EUR and are exclusive of VAT or other applicable taxes. The applicable rate of VAT on services in Belgium is 21%.

JURISTENKANTOOR — CABINET DE JURISTES — LAW FIRM

1. Chargeable hour	Rate
Standard rate	EUR 150.00
Special rate (urgency, specialised subject matter, specialism)	EUR 250.00
Bonus (exceptional result, and always as agreed)	1% - 10%
2. Debt recovery (no court proceedings)	Percentages
EUR 1 – EUR 5,000	10%
EUR 5,001 – EUR 10,000	8%
EUR 10,001 – EUR 20,000	6%
EUR 20,001 – EUR 50,000	5%
EUR 50,001 – EUR 100,000	4%
Over EUR 100,000	3%
3. Office expenses	10% of the fees

Clause 5

As the handling of the matter progresses, the Firm shall invoice the Client for payments on account of fees and expenses. Before the Firm accepts a file, and after signature of this Agreement and, where the Firm considers it necessary, of the KYC forms, the Firm shall invoice an initial payment on account based on the anticipated fees and expenses, in proportion to the nature and complexity of the matter and to the quality and quantity of the engagements entrusted to it.

On completion of an engagement by the Firm, the Firm shall send the Client, per file, a detailed invoice of fees and expenses, less the payments on account already made.

All invoices are payable within the fourteen (14) calendar days following the day on which the invoice was sent to the Client. The invoice date shall be deemed to be the date of dispatch. Where the Client is a Consumer Client (as defined in clause 15), the provisions of Book XIX of the Belgian Code of Economic Law shall also apply.

Interest at the rate of 8% per annum shall be charged on any invoiced amount paid late, together with lump-sum compensation of 10%, both as from the first written reminder sent to the Client (e.g. by email, letter or registered letter).

The preceding paragraph shall not apply where the Client is a Consumer Client. In that case, the Firm shall first send a free-of-charge payment reminder. If payment is still not made on expiry of the waiting period laid down in Article XIX.2 of the Code of Economic Law, the Consumer Client shall owe, as from the day following that period, late-payment interest at the rate of 8% per annum, or at the maximum rate laid down in Article XIX.4 of the same Code if that rate is lower, together with lump-sum compensation equal to the maximum amount laid down in that same Article, as applicable at the time of the reminder.

JURISTENKANTOOR — CABINET DE JURISTES — LAW FIRM

Where the Firm owes a Consumer Client a sum, such as a payment on account to be refunded, and fails to pay that sum on time, the Firm shall owe the Consumer Client the same late-payment interest and lump-sum compensation, on the same terms and within the same limits.

If payment is still not made after expiry of the agreed period and after formal written notice of default, the Firm shall be entitled to suspend (temporarily, until receipt of proof of payment) or terminate the engagements and services in whole or in part. The Firm shall notify the Client thereof in writing (e.g. by email, letter or registered letter), stating the reason, and shall ensure that the Client's interests are not prejudiced, in the manner set out in clause 7.

During the suspension and after the termination, the Firm shall not be obliged to continue handling the files and engagements concerned. This paragraph is without prejudice to the Client's statutory rights and rights of action.

Clause 6

The Client shall be entitled at any time, by written notice, to terminate this Agreement or the handling of one or more files, without owing the Firm any compensation, but subject to the obligation to pay all fees and expenses still owing up to the date of termination, within the period laid down in clause 5. Where a percentage-based calculation has been agreed, the services performed before termination shall be settled on the basis of the chargeable hourly rate, provided that this amount may not exceed the amount that would result from the agreed percentage. Payments on account not used for services or expenses shall be refunded to the Client within the same period.

Clause 7

Without prejudice to clauses 2 and 5, the Firm shall be entitled to terminate this Agreement, without owing the Client any compensation, where the Firm considers that the conduct, attitude or professional or private background of the Client, or the matter or engagement entrusted to the Firm as such, is incompatible with the law, or with the reputation, style or moral and personal principles of the Firm and its (managing) partner. The Firm shall in no case base this assessment on a criterion protected by anti-discrimination legislation.

Should the Firm wish to exercise this right for the reasons stated above, it shall inform the Client in writing (e.g. by email, letter or registered letter) and shall ensure that the Client's interests are not prejudiced by allowing the Client sufficient time to contact another adviser or legal representative. During the period laid down below, the Firm shall continue to take such steps as admit of no delay and are necessary to prevent the loss of a right or the lapse of a time limit, pending the Client's instructions as to the further conduct of the matter.

It is agreed that a period of ten calendar days from notification shall be sufficient for the Client to appoint a new adviser or lawyer. On expiry of that period, the Firm shall no longer be obliged to continue handling the files concerned. The Firm's liability for services performed before that time shall remain governed by clause 9.

JURISTENKANTOOR — CABINET DE JURISTES — LAW FIRM

The Firm shall settle the account for the services performed before termination in accordance with clause 5 and shall refund any unused payments on account within fourteen calendar days after the date of the final invoice. This shall also apply where the Firm terminates the Agreement pursuant to clause 2 or clause 5.

Clause 8

By reason of its organisation and of existing professional and academic relationships, the Firm is bound by obligations which prohibit it from acting in any matter in which the interests of the Client are, directly or indirectly, adverse to those of any of the Excluded Entities defined below. Furthermore, in order to safeguard those relationships in all circumstances, the Firm shall not act for any client whose interests, in any matter whatsoever and whether or not the Firm is involved in that matter, are adverse to those of an Excluded Entity.

For the purposes of this Agreement, “Excluded Entities” means: Universiteit Hasselt (Hasselt University) and Universiteit Maastricht, which also operates under the name Maastricht University, together with their faculties, schools, institutes, research centres and departments, the companies, foundations and associations affiliated with them, the university hospitals with which they cooperate, and the associations and collaborative arrangements of which they form part, including the Associatie Universiteit-Hogescholen Limburg (AUHL) and the transnationale Universiteit Limburg (TUL), and their respective successors in title.

The term “Excluded Entities” also includes: the Landsbond der Christelijke Mutualiteiten (National Association of Christian Mutualities), CM Vlaanderen and the Mutualité chrétienne (MC), together with every national association of health insurance funds, every health insurance fund, every mutual assistance society, every insurance institution, every non-profit association, every company, every fund, every service and every other entity, in each case in so far as it is affiliated with, a member of, derived from or under the authority of any of the entities named above, and their respective successors in title.

Lastly, the term “Excluded Entities” also includes the directors, members of staff and other persons acting under the authority of the entities referred to in the two preceding paragraphs, but only when they are acting in that capacity.

This Agreement is entered into subject to the express resolute condition (ontbindende voorwaarde) that a situation arises, in any form whatsoever, in which the interests of the Client are adverse to those of one or more Excluded Entities (an “Adverse Interest Situation”). An Adverse Interest Situation includes, without limitation, any claim, demand, complaint, dispute, negotiation, mediation, arbitration, disciplinary proceedings, administrative appeal or court proceedings in which the Client and an Excluded Entity are, or are at risk of becoming, opposing parties, whether before a Belgian or foreign court or tribunal, administrative authority or internal complaints or appeals body, as well as any engagement the performance of which would be aimed at, or would result in, prejudice to the interests of an Excluded Entity. The condition is fulfilled as soon as an Adverse Interest Situation arises, irrespective of whether it has already given rise to a formal claim or proceedings and irrespective of whether the Firm is aware of it at that time.

The fulfilment of the condition takes effect automatically (van rechtswege) and for the future only. The Agreement is thereupon dissolved in its entirety, and the dissolution extends to all files, matters and engagements which it governs pursuant to clause 1, subject to the provisions of this clause set out below concerning the transitional period and the settlement of accounts for the services performed.

JURISTENKANTOOR — CABINET DE JURISTES — LAW FIRM

The Firm shall record the fulfilment of the condition in writing and shall notify the Client thereof without delay (e.g. by email, letter or registered letter), stating the date on which the condition was fulfilled. Where the Firm establishes that the condition was fulfilled at an earlier time, the services performed in good faith between that time and the notification shall remain valid and payable. The Firm shall not be required to explain the nature of its obligations towards the Excluded Entities.

By analogy with clause 7, the Firm shall ensure that the Client's interests are not prejudiced. To that end, it shall allow the Client a period of ten calendar days from the notification referred to in the preceding paragraph to appoint another adviser or legal representative. During that period, the Firm shall confine itself to such steps as admit of no delay and are necessary to prevent the loss of a right or the lapse of a time limit, and shall take no step whatsoever affecting the Client's interests vis-à-vis an Excluded Entity. Solely for the performance of those steps and the settlement of accounts in respect of them, the parties' rights and obligations under this Agreement shall continue during that period. On expiry of the period, the Firm shall no longer be liable to the Client or to third parties.

The dissolution shall not give rise to restitution of the services already performed. To the extent necessary, the parties derogate from Articles 5.115 to 5.122 of the Civil Code: the fees and expenses relating to the services performed before the dissolution shall remain payable and shall be settled in accordance with clause 5. Neither party shall owe the other any compensation by reason of the dissolution itself.

The Firm's duty of confidentiality shall survive the dissolution. The Firm shall under no circumstances use the information it has received from the Client for the benefit of an Excluded Entity or to the detriment of the Client.

The Client undertakes to inform the Firm without delay as soon as the Client becomes aware of facts or circumstances which give rise, or may reasonably give rise, to an Adverse Interest Situation. This undertaking applies both when this Agreement is entered into and throughout its performance. Failure to comply with this undertaking shall not of itself constitute a resolute condition within the meaning of this clause.

Without prejudice to the foregoing, the Firm may decline a matter or engagement where, on examining the file, it finds that performing it could lead to an Adverse Interest Situation, without incurring any liability to the Client as a result.

JURISTENKANTOOR — CABINET DE JURISTES — LAW FIRM

Clause 9

The Firm shall perform the engagements entrusted to it to the best of its ability.

The Firm's liability for professional fault shall be limited to the amount of the fees charged, or still owing, in respect of the file concerned.

The Firm shall not be liable for the faults of third parties outside the Firm on whom it calls pursuant to clause 3 and to whose involvement the Client has consented.

Where the Client approves a draft, document or proposal from the Firm, the Client warrants the accuracy and completeness of the factual information contained therein, such as names, addresses, dates, amounts and the account of the facts, and the Firm shall not be liable for any loss or damage arising from any inaccuracy or incompleteness of that information. Where the Client takes a decision after the Firm has drawn the Client's attention in writing to the risks involved, or contrary to the Firm's written advice, the Firm shall not be liable for the consequences of that decision. Approval by the Client shall not release the Firm from its liability for the legal assessment contained in the draft, document or proposal.

The limitations and exclusions in this clause shall not apply, and may not be relied on by the Firm, in the following cases.

- 1° In the event of its intentional fault or that of a person for whom it is answerable.
- 2° Where the fault affects the life or physical integrity of a person.
- 3° Where the limitation would deprive the contract of its substance.
- 4° Where the Client is a Consumer Client, in the cases referred to in Article VI.83, 13°, of the Code of Economic Law.
- 5° In all other cases in which a mandatory statutory provision precludes the limitation.

Where the Client is a Business Client, this limitation is agreed in return for the agreed rates and is commensurate with the cover provided by the Firm's professional indemnity insurance. The parties expressly agree that the limitation, as so circumscribed, does not create a manifest imbalance between their rights and obligations within the meaning of Article VI.91/3 of the Code of Economic Law.

Clause 10

Any comments or objections by the Client concerning an invoice or the services invoiced shall reach the Firm within fourteen calendar days after the invoice date, by registered letter, stating the reasons.

If no such objection is received within that period, the services invoiced shall be presumed to have been accepted and to be in accordance with the Client's instructions and the Firm's obligations. This presumption is rebuttable. It is without prejudice to the Client's statutory rights and rights of action. No provision of this Agreement may be construed as a waiver by the Client of the right to bring proceedings before the courts.

JURISTENKANTOOR — CABINET DE JURISTES — LAW FIRM

In the event of a persisting disagreement between the Firm and the Client concerning the fees and expenses, or concerning the services and the performance of the engagements, the courts of the judicial district of Antwerp shall have jurisdiction.

The preceding paragraph shall not apply where the Client is a Consumer Client, in which case the competent court shall be determined in accordance with Article 624, 1°, 2° and 4°, of the Belgian Judicial Code, as required by Article VI.83, 23°, of the Code of Economic Law, and without prejudice to Regulation (EU) No 1215/2012 where the Consumer Client is domiciled in another Member State. A jurisdiction clause agreed after the dispute has arisen remains permissible.

This Agreement shall at all times be governed exclusively by Belgian law. However, in so far as Article 6 of Regulation (EC) No 593/2008 applies, a Consumer Client shall retain the protection afforded by those provisions of the law of the country of his or her habitual residence which cannot be derogated from by agreement.

Clause 11

The Firm applies measures to prevent money laundering and terrorist financing, whether pursuant to the applicable legislation or as a matter of its own diligence. “The AML Act” means the Belgian Act of 18 September 2017 on the prevention of money laundering and terrorist financing and on the restriction of the use of cash. In that connection, the Client accepts that the Firm will, inter alia:

- * take and retain a copy of the Client’s identity document (identity card, international passport or driving licence) where the Client is a natural person, or of the articles of association and the most recent resolution concerning the appointment of managers or directors where the Client is a legal entity;
- * pass on this information, where required to do so by a competent authority, to the Belgian Financial Intelligence Processing Unit (CTIF-CFI) or any other authority competent in that regard;
- * obtain from the Client all information necessary to identify the ultimate beneficial owners (UBOs) of any structure or entity to be set up, or of an existing structure or organisation, in order to comply with UBO reporting obligations and standards;
- * obtain from the Client all information necessary to complete the Firm’s KYC (“Know Your Client”) forms in connection with mandatory or recommended compliance rules.

The Client accepts that the Firm may decline a matter or engagement after it has received all the information from the Client, or may suspend its services until it has received the aforementioned documents and information, without incurring any liability to the Client.

The Client expressly declares that the Firm has questioned the Client as to whether the services requested from the Firm, or the file entrusted to it, are or may be connected, to any extent however slight, with the laundering of money or other assets of illegal origin in the widest sense of the word, or with the financing of terrorism, as provided for in the aforementioned legislation. The Client expressly denies that, so far as the Client knows or suspects, this is the case, and undertakes to inform the Firm immediately should any facts or circumstances arise which suggest the contrary.

JURISTENKANTOOR — CABINET DE JURISTES — LAW FIRM

The Client has been informed and agrees that, in so far as the Firm is subject to the AML Act and in so far as the aforementioned statutory provisions have not been complied with, the Firm may not and will not act in the file concerned and is obliged, without providing any further information to the Client in that regard, to pass the relevant information and particulars to the competent authorities so that they may take the necessary action.

The obligations to report to the competent authorities apply only to the clients, activities and practices covered by the AML Act, taking into account the statutory exemptions. This may in particular be the case where the Firm is consulted in tax matters or in the files referred to in the following paragraph. In all other cases, the Firm's duty of confidentiality applies.

The Client declares that, in so far as the Client has consulted the Firm in the context of a tax or financial file under Belgian or international law, in which the Client has, inter alia and without limitation, asked the Firm for advice on the incorporation, amendment of the articles of association, merger, liquidation, contribution of assets, capital increase, sale or purchase of shares and, in general, any fact or act connected with the incorporation, existence or dissolution of a legal entity under Belgian or foreign law, including the tax and para-fiscal implications of such acts for the Client and the structures concerned:

- * the Firm's engagement does not consist in organising legal arrangements or in performing an act or legal fact with a view to tax evasion or tax abuse, or in assisting with or advising on such acts. The Client confirms that the Firm takes no initiative whatsoever in that regard and refrains at all times from such activities or involvement. The Firm's engagement is limited to an advisory role and the final decision is taken by the Client alone;
- * the Client provides the Firm with all information, files and documents necessary for the Firm to have a complete and correct overview of the Client and the Client's affairs, inter alia with regard to the acceptance, continuation or refusal of the Client's matters, without the Firm being liable for the consequences of any incompleteness or inaccuracy of the information provided by the Client;
- * the facts, documents and deeds communicated to the Firm in the course of its advisory engagement have always, and without exception, been subjected to the tax normally due on them and to the other statutory obligations applicable to the deed or act concerned, or the Client has at least made provision or set aside funds for them to that end.

JURISTENKANTOOR — CABINET DE JURISTES — LAW FIRM

Clause 12

The processing of personal data by the Firm is carried out in accordance with Regulation (EU) 2016/679 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data (General Data Protection Regulation) and the Belgian Act of 30 July 2018 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data. The Firm acts as controller for the processing operations which it carries out in its own name. The purposes, the legal bases, the recipients, the retention periods and the rights of the data subject are described in the Firm's privacy statement, which the Client acknowledges having taken note of. Where the Firm acts on the instructions of, or in collaboration with, an instructing professional, the Firm and that professional shall set out in the agreement between them who is responsible for which processing operation, and the Firm shall inform the Client, on request, which privacy statement applies to the Client.

The Client retains in full the rights conferred on the Client by Articles 15 to 22 of the aforementioned Regulation. No provision of this Agreement constitutes a waiver of those rights. Any such waiver would in any event be of no effect.

In preparing its work, the Firm uses technical tools, including artificial intelligence applications. It shall not take decisions based solely on automated processing within the meaning of Article 22 of the aforementioned Regulation. Every substantive assessment shall be made by a legal adviser, who remains responsible for it, and every reference to legislation, case law or legal literature shall be checked against the original source. The Firm shall not use free consumer services for file data, shall not share with a tool more data than the task concerned requires, and shall enter into a data processing agreement in accordance with Article 28 of the aforementioned Regulation with every service provider that processes personal data on its behalf. The Firm's AI statement explains this further.

A Client who does not wish such tools to be used in the Client's file shall say so at the start of the engagement. In that case, the parties shall record in writing what this means for the turnaround time and the cost of the engagement.

The Firm may use the Client's personal data for its internal administrative and organisational processes and for inclusion in its file records, including the management of conflicts of interest. It shall not send newsletters, invitations to events, seminars or training courses, or any other advertising by electronic mail without the prior, freely given, specific and informed consent of the addressee, in accordance with Article XII.13 of the Code of Economic Law, save in the cases in which that provision grants an exemption. Such consent is separate from this Agreement and may be withdrawn at any time and free of charge, and its withdrawal shall have no effect whatsoever on the performance of this Agreement.

The Firm shall not mention the name of the Client or of the Client's business in its external communications, its publicity or its references without the Client's prior written consent, and shall at all times observe professional discretion and confidentiality.

JURISTENKANTOOR — CABINET DE JURISTES — LAW FIRM

The Firm shall treat as confidential all information which it receives from or about the Client in the course of its engagement. It shall disclose such information to third parties only in so far as the performance of the engagement so requires, the Client consents thereto or a statutory obligation so requires. This duty of confidentiality also applies to its staff and to the third parties on whom it calls pursuant to clause 3.

Clause 13

The work and services of the Firm, and everything resulting from them in the form of documents, texts, agreements, structures, plans and ideas, are the exclusive intellectual property of the Firm.

Where the Client or the Client's organisation contributes to their creation and intellectual property rights in that contribution vest in the Client as a result, the Client grants the Firm a non-exclusive, royalty-free, transferable and worldwide licence to use, reproduce, adapt and communicate that contribution in the context of the matter or file entrusted to the Firm, for the term of protection. This licence otherwise leaves the Client's rights unaffected and is without prejudice to Article XI.165, § 2, and Article XI.167, § 1, of the Code of Economic Law.

Accordingly, the Client may not use the aforementioned documents, texts, agreements, structures, plans or ideas outside the context of the matter or file entrusted to the Firm, or communicate them to third parties, whether or not in amended form, or reproduce, use or modify them for the purposes of other matters or files in which the Firm has not been involved, with or without attribution to the Firm. In such a case, the Firm shall be entitled to charge its fees and expenses for such re-use.

The Client retains the right to receive the documents in the Client's file. Nothing in this clause affects that right.

Clause 14

By signing this Agreement, the Client declares that the Client has been fully informed of the possibilities offered by various alternative methods of dispute resolution which might apply to the Client's matter, including conciliation, arbitration and mediation, the latter in accordance with Articles 1723/1 et seq. of the Belgian Judicial Code.

Clause 15

For the purposes of this Agreement, "Consumer Client" means a Client who is a natural person acting for purposes outside his or her trade, business, craft or profession, within the meaning of Article I.1, 2°, of the Code of Economic Law. "Business Client" means any Client other than a Consumer Client.

This Agreement supersedes any prior agreement between the parties on the same subject matter. Any amendment of or addition to this Agreement shall be valid only if made in writing and accepted by both parties.

JURISTENKANTOOR — CABINET DE JURISTES — LAW FIRM

If any provision of this Agreement is wholly or partly invalid or void, or is deemed unwritten, the remaining provisions shall continue in full force and effect. The parties undertake to replace the provision concerned with a valid provision that comes as close as possible to the economic balance of the Agreement. If a provision is declared void or deemed unwritten in respect of a Consumer Client, it shall continue to apply in respect of a Business Client, in so far as the law permits.

All communications between the parties shall be made in writing to the address or email address stated in this Agreement. Any change thereto shall be notified to the other party without delay. Failing such notification, the address last notified shall remain valid.

Clause 8, as regards confidentiality, and clauses 9, 10, 12 and 13 shall survive the end of this Agreement, whatever the cause of its ending, in so far as their subject matter so requires.

This Agreement has been drawn up in Dutch. In the event of any discrepancy between language versions, the Dutch text shall prevail.

Signed at Berlaar, Belgium, on the date stated above.

DECKER LAW

(Client's signature)